

OCTOBER UPDATE

At rehearsal, on the 24th of September, we experienced just a hint of what is in store on the night of the Concert, with virtually a 100% turn out by all three choirs; Spirit of the Streets Choir, Perth Male Voice Choir and the Working Voices Choir

One hundred voices, united in song, makes an impressive sound. With, Bernard Carney, the musical director of the Spirit of the Streets Choir and Working Voices Choir, holding sway at the front to conduct and introduce the items we will be singing together at the October 14th concert, the result was very impressive.

With a long break for refreshments and a chance to socialise thrown into the mix at the half way stage, the entire evening was deemed both a musical success and a great night out.

On the general front, things have been hectic with concert promotions.

We received a wonderful write up in the West Australian Week End Newspaper colour supplement, The West Australian Newspaper has now come on board as a major sponsor of the event.

In addition several other community news papers and magazines have already added the story of the concert to their editions.

The radio stations, both Commercial and Community based, have given us extensive air time and there is even a TV item scheduled to go to air on the ABC Stateline program on the 10th October at 7.30.

Sue Scrutton our publicist has done a magnificent job of providing these media opportunities for us and we are eternally grateful for her tireless efforts on our behalf.

Our Producer, Rachel Moorhead and her Assistant Producer Nunzio Giunta are equally busy developing and setting in place the format and staging details to ensure the event comes together on the night as, not just a concert, but as a fantastic experience which will lift the spirit of all those involved on the stage and those fortunate enough to be in the audience.

This has been described by others as "The biggest charity event ever to take place in the Concert Hall".

From the performers' point of view, we are giving it our all to ensure the success of the evening and we invite the people of Perth to come, share in and be a huge part of the experience.
